

LISI awarded Deloitte's Best Managed Companies label for the second time

Paris, July 03, 2023.

We are proud to announce that we have been awarded Best Managed Companies for the second year, with 14 French companies winning the 2023 edition of Deloitte France's Best Managed Companies program. Created 30 years ago by Deloitte Canada and launched at the end of 2021 in France, this label rewards the excellence of companies that stand out for the quality of their management and their performance, following a rigorous and independent selection process. Companies are assessed on the basis of their long-term strategy, their talent management and innovation capacity, their CSR policy, as well as their governance and financial management. These criteria enable us to measure a company's differentiating factors, as well as its ability to address current and future challenges.

Obtaining this prestigious label testifies to our deep commitment to our values, and represents a unique opportunity to consolidate our reputation, benefit from renowned expertise, differentiate ourselves in the marketplace and cultivate a constant quest for excellence.

Our Group is one of 14 French companies to be awarded the Best Managed Companies label in 2023. "For the second year running, I am delighted to have LISI among the companies awarded the Best Managed Companies label of excellence," says Eric Forest, Deloitte Private Leader Partner in charge of the Best Managed Companies program. "This is confirmation of its robustness and success across the four pillars of the program."

"We would like to thank all our teams for their commitment and resilience, which has enabled us to win this label for the second year running. It rewards our long-standing CSR actions, testifying to our determination to create a promising future and decarbonize our industry. Our vision of innovation and operational excellence drives our ambition to inspire bright talent, especially women, to transform our industry," says LISI CEO Emmanuel Viellard.
