

Press Release

Grandvillars, June 22, 2026

Based in Grandvillars, in the Territoire de Belfort, LISI recognized among France's Best-Managed Companies

The LISI Group announces that it is one of the 49 French companies to receive Deloitte France's 2026 "Best Managed Companies" designation.

Based in Grandvillars for nearly 250 years, the company now has nearly 10,000 employees worldwide and specializes in the manufacture of high-value-added fasteners and assembly components for the aerospace and automotive sectors. This distinction recognizes not only the Group's overall performance but also its regional roots and its contribution to the local economy.

Launched in France in 2021, the "Best Managed Companies" program, founded by Deloitte Canada over thirty years ago, has established itself as a benchmark certification, present in more than 46 countries and encompassing over 1,300 companies. In France, it notably recognizes large mid-sized companies that embody the strength and expertise of the French economic fabric.

This certification recognizes private companies for excellence in management and overall performance through a rigorous evaluation process based on four main criteria: strategy, resources and innovation; culture and commitment; governance and financial aspects. This analytical model provides a comprehensive and in-depth understanding of management quality and organizational strength.

This year, the LISI Group once again joins the ranks of the 49 French companies certified as Best Managed Companies.

For the LISI Group, this recognition is part of a recent trend marked by organic growth exceeding 10% - in 2025 - for the fourth consecutive year, illustrating the strength of its business model and its ability to adapt.

"We are proud to count LISI among the companies recognized as Best Managed Companies, alongside exemplary, innovative, and resilient leaders who champion the excellence and dynamism of the French economy," comments Guillaume Detournmignies, Deloitte Partner in charge of the Best Managed Companies program.

"Receiving the Best Managed Companies designation is an honor we share with all our teams, whose commitment and resilience are the true driving force behind our growth. This recognition also acknowledges the consistency of our strategy: a deliberate refocusing on our two high-value-added businesses, in pursuit of global leadership that we intend to strengthen by combining economic performance, operational excellence, and innovation," states Emmanuel Viellard, CEO of LISI.

About the Best Managed Companies Program

Created by Deloitte Canada over three decades ago, the Best Managed Companies program highlights private companies that stand out for the quality of their management and the sustainability of their performance. Organizations are evaluated according to a common framework structured around complementary pillars: vision and strategy, culture and engagement, talent management and innovation, governance, and financial performance.
